Grand Opening: Watch the Restoration Unfold

THE DEL'S SIX-YEAR, MORE THAN $550 MILLION RESTORATION MADE HEADLINES ---

but did you know there is a three-part documentary series, presented by KPBS, in which you can watch the entire process unfold? Historic Places with Elsa Sevilla - Hotel del Coronado Restoration takes you on the journey of discovering each step of they way including The Del's beginnings in 1888, major milestones in its 136-year history, and the meticulous detail that went into restoring every facet of this National Historic Landmark since 2018.

NEIGHBORHOOD SPOTLIGHT:

Beach Village

Tucked along the shoreline, Beach Village at The Del offers a secluded beachfront haven of charming cottages and villas. This exclusive retreat is a sanctuary where your personal concierge curates every detail, creating a seamless escape of relaxation and discovery. Cherish unforgettable moments that linger long after your stay—whether it's watching the sun melt into the horizon, indulging in the ocean's freshest flavors on your private patio, or sharing stories by the glow of your own personal fire pit.

SPOTLIGHT:

Executive Chef Brian Archibald

Executive Chef Brian Archibald has played an integral role in The Del's culinary revitalization. A graduate from California Culinary Academy in San Francisco, Chef Archibald has over 25 years of hospitality experience, including leadership operations in Michelin-starred kitchens.

"I am honored to join the team at the iconic Hotel del Coronado at such an exciting time in its storied history," said Executive Chef Brian Archibald. "I'm looking forward to elevating the resort's already exceptional dining scene and offering guests an experience that is both innovative and deeply connected to the local culture."
