Grand Opening – Restoring a Treasure

THE DEL AS YOU KNOW IT, REIMAGINED.

For more than 135 years, Hotel del Coronado has welcomed travelers from all over the world to experience the best of Southern California's coastal lifestyle. The Victorian building is the original, iconic beachfront hotel established in 1888, and is renowned for evoking a bygone era, with a star-studded legacy and magic of nearly two centuries.

After a six-year, more than $550 million restoration that has touched all areas of the resort, The Del has officially completed its final phase. Click here to see everything the revitalized Del has to offer.

BEFORE

AFTER

THE VICTORIAN TRANSFORMATION

In the original 1888 hotel that evokes the legacy and magic of two centuries, no two rooms are alike – but all are full of character. The revitalization of the 135-year-old Victorian building celebrates The Del's legendary history while improving function and design.

NEIGHBORHOOD SPOTLIGHT:

Shore House at The Del

Steps away from the shore, gather with friends old and new to celebrate life's simple pleasures. Indulge in sophisticated amenities and experiences crafted for moments of togetherness – from a poolside cabana and seaside living room bistro to elegant accommodations with contemporary coastal design details.

Brand New Culinary Delights

Nobu del Coronado

NOW SERVING LUNCH!

Marking the continued expansion of The Del's culinary experiences, Nobu del Coronado is the newest addition to the world-renowned Japanese restaurant empire founded by Nobu Matsuhisa and Robert De Niro. Reservations for lunch and dinner open now.

Veranda

In the spirit of the hotel's original wraparound veranda where guests strolled, mingled, and lounged to take in the sea air, Veranda invites you to gather with family and friends and enjoy delicious food, rich conversation, and a remarkable oceanside setting.
